ROYAL FAMILY'S DISCORD

The first edition
this new broadsheet

Meghan specifies that she doesn't want to have children anymore. Nonetheless, another revelation was about to burst into the world's face, the Duchess declared that a member of the Royal family commented the skin tone of the young Archie, but Prince Harry categorically refuses to disclose any name. It also has been claimed that Meghan and Harry didn't want to give Archie any title because they want him to be raised as a private citizen. However, it appears that the decision was made by the Royal Palace, against the will of the couple.

Finally, Harry and Meghan then tell us about their lack of support whether from Meghan's father, who conspired with the paparazzi, or the Royal family itself, which did nothing to help the Duke and Duchess of Sussex against the racist harassment of the young Archie on social medias.

This summary is based on the article Harry and Meghan's Oprah interview bombshells: accusing the Royal family of racism, the Duchess had suicidal thoughts, and Kate made Meghan cry written by Victoria Ward in The Daily Telegraph, the 9th of March 2021.

SUSSEX'S ATOMIC BOMB
During Oprah Winfrey's interview, the Duke and Duchess of Sussex had revealed shocking information which might provoke havoc inside the Royal palace.

Firstly, Prince Harry reveals through Oprah's interview that he felt "really let down" by the Prince of Wales and his deficiency of empathy. As a matter of fact, Prince Charles did not answer any of his son's calls. The duke of Sussex only speaks regularly to his grandmother, Queen Elisabeth II Windsor. As written earlier above, Harry and her grandmother had a great relation until January 2020 where she appeared to be busy all the week despite the invitation of the Monarch few days ago. Meghan believes that the reason why their invitation was pulled was because of really bad advices coming from the "men in grey suits". Later in the interview, the couple announces the arrival of a new child in the family due this summer and is "delighted" to know that it's a girl.
